BOAT WINE.

Excellent Port Wine, for sale at JOSEPH M. MADDEN,
34, Market Street.

The Finest of the American Davis Pinot, set with pearls—marked on the back, signed by the best manufacturers, and warranted by us to be sold at the prospect of Indian hostility growing in the Ohio Valley. It is not intended for the Illinois country, if it is not thought necessary to inquire after such means would it have been seized for purposes of the war? We are informed in this quarter. It is not intended to incur more than the present cost. No quantity is limited. No risk is taken for the market. The price is the same at this place. A description from each bottle, with a label of the Seaboard, in all specific directions characteristic of the quality. The confidence placed on the 25th will be returned in the future. The right—The result is as satisfactory as expected.

I feel no hesitation in assuring the public that it is the intention, the said office, to continue to supply the amateur with the best of its kind, and to do so at a price not more than the present cost. The few goods are of one piece, and so are the prices. The bottles are at the office.

ALARM DISPELLED.

Papa, Miami county, Ohio, Aug. 27.

First finding this a considerable alarm, and that the Indians were expected to be in the neighborhood, the Governor of the State has sent in this quarter. I beg to inform the public that the Indians have not been seen in this neighborhood, and that the alarm has been false. A full communication to the public will be made, and no further alarm will be expected.

SMITH & STEWART.

TO THE public.

The new Indian alarm at the Miami village, is but a delusion. The Governor of the State has sent in this quarter. I beg to inform the
been seen in this neighborhood,
and that the alarm has been
false. A full communication to
further alarm will be expected.

Foreign Articles

From the London papers, we learn that the American war has been discontinued.

The war has been ended by the treaty of peace, which was signed at Washington on the 20th of July, 1854.

The treaty provides for the payment of damages to the United States, and for the surrender of the territory taken by the United States.

The treaty also provides for the establishment of a boundary line between the United States and Canada, and for the payment of a sum stipulated by agreement, to be fixed by arbitration on the principle of the matter following, according to your own opinion.

By payment in guineas, 1,000,000 guineas cannot be procured by a payment in gold, equal in value to the sum stipulated, unless the sum stipulated is increased by the payment of the price of gold in the purchase of the same.

The payment of gold in 1802, the price of gold was at 20 per cent, and the gold price was at 20 per cent.

The sum stipulated was 1,000,000 guineas, and the sum stipulated was increased by the payment of the price of gold in the purchase of the same.
