CASE OF JAMES MCCUTCHEON. - The following is a copy of a letter received from Mr. James McCutcheon, of New York:

New York, September 29.

LATE FROM PORTUGAL.

Camps, etc., new prominent, provides the latest news of the death of the Emperor of Brazil. He was assassinated on the 1st of October. The news spread with great sorrow, and the companies of the late Emperor were very sorrowful. It is reported that the late Emperor had been in a state of ill health for some time, and that the cause of his death is supposed to have been caused by a disease which is known as the "Brazilian Fever." The Emperor was a man of great learning and wisdom, and his death will be a great loss to the country.

General Arthur, the late Emperor's son, is at present in Europe, and is expected to return to Brazil in a few days. He is expected to be a great leader in the country, and his return will be a great event in the history of Brazil.

The news from other parts of the world is also interesting. The British Parliament has passed a bill for the abolition of the slave trade, and the news from India is also important. The Government has announced that it will soon begin the construction of a railway from London to Edinburgh. This railway will be a great benefit to the country, and will be a great improvement in the transportation of goods.
